

New Psychiatrist now accepting inpatient referrals

Dr Sam Lieblich, consultant psychiatrist and psychoanalyst, has recently commenced practice at The Geelong Clinic.

Dr Lieblich is accepting inpatient referrals for eating disorder assessments and admission into our hospital-based eating disorders program - Learn to Eat at Peace (LEAP).

What types of patients are suitable for LEAP?

- those beginning their recovery from an eating disorder
- ready to learn new skills to replace eating disorder behaviours
- needing support with weight restoration.

Dr Lieblich has experience in the management of Eating Disorders in both adult and adolescent patients.

He embraces a holistic model of care that aligns with the humanistic principles of psychoanalysis. Patients are supported in beginning their recovery journey from eating disorders within a compassionate, multidisciplinary treatment environment.
